in the days immediately following 9 11 joseph stowell attended a special chicago prayer breakfast he was encouraged to learn there was much interest in god and spirituality among the attendees he was troubled however by the subtle implication common among the speakers that day that jesus with his exclusive claims was unwelcome that given the broad diversity of religions in america we now need to give up the traditions that divide those of us who believe in god stowell left the breakfast even more determined to preach the centrality of christ in the church proclaiming jesus is a collection of essays written by faculty of the moody bible institute in honor of dr stowell that take up the message he proclaimed making it clear that every area of church life and ministry is about jesus the keystone of christianity is jesus s physical bodily resurrection present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of jesus the literature measures well over seven thousand sources in english language books alone this makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort a thematic access oriented bibliography of jesus s resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways first the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand english sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g christian jewish muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic the objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease be inspired by amazing eyewitness stories of hope and courage from the persecuted church we are witnessing an astonishing escalation in christian persecution like we have rarely seen since the first century some estimate that every five minutes a christian is martyred for his or her faith countries like egypt have experienced more christian persecution in the last five years than in the previous six hundred years combined and who could have missed the atrocities of isis in syria boko haram in nigeria and the continued persecution of christians in north korea johnnie moore like many american christians didn t fully appreciate the extent of what was going on until he witnessed the graduation of theology students in india unlike graduation ceremonies in america where feel good speeches made by visiting celebrities are common this one featured a remarkable oath it wasn t an oath to excel or succeed it was an oath to be willing to die if necessary for the cause of christ this was no empty promise this was a choice choosing the eternal over the temporal johnnie knew he was witnessing a raw first century christianity that his comfortable american version had shielded him from for the first time i really understand my faith says johnnie moore now he s on a mission to give this same experience to others he and his team have crisscrossed the world recorders in hand gathering eyewitness accounts from dozens of people who survived persecution and the stories of some who didn t join johnnie moore on this compelling journey to the heart of the christian faith
