American Boarding School Fiction 1981-2021 Inclusion and Scandal is a study of contemporary American boarding school narratives before the 1980s. Writers of American boarding school fiction tended to concentrate on mournful teenagers when teachers, parents, and other adults appeared. They were usually placed far from the center of the action; the center was filled with white male Protestant students at boarding schools. In this book, Alexander H. Pitofsky discusses a new generation of writers including Richard A. Hawley, Anita Shreve, Curtis Sittenfeld, and Tobias Wolff that has transformed school fiction by highlighting issues relating to gender, race, scandal, sexuality, education, and social class in unprecedented ways. By turning their attention away from the bruised feelings of teenagers, Pitofsky argues, these authors have reinvented American boarding school fiction, writing vividly about a host of subjects the genre overlooked in the past.

What Happened to Abraham: Reinventing the Covenant in American Jewish Fiction examines the ways in which contemporary American Jewish writers reinvent and reconfigure stories of the Hebrew covenant as a way of conceiving, negotiating, and redefining Jewish identity in America. In attempting to locate a place for Jewish identity at the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty-first, American Jewish writers look to an imaginary memory to reengage a defining central Jewish history that has post-World War II become diluted in American culture.
